THE ESUJ 20TH ANNIVERSARY SYMPOSIUM

“Using English to meet challenges in the world”

How best can we foster the kind of mindset and skills for Japanese to communicate effectively in a global setting? This is the task that ESUJ has set for itself for 20 years since its establishment. We will probe this question further with the benefit of practical advice of prominent panelists on the basis of their active experiences on the global stage, which will give us useful suggestions for the future.
